Aero Tech Manufacturing Announces Direct Sales and Technical Support for the DDS System.

North Salt Lake, Utah – October 10th, 2024 – Aero Tech Manufacturing is excited to announce that its renowned DDS System will now be available for direct purchase, in addition to its existing distribution through Jon Don. This strategic shift allows Aero Tech to provide customized packages tailored to each customer’s unique requirements, ensuring the highest level of satisfaction and performance.

This new sales approach offers DDS System owners the flexibility to continue receiving technical support through Jon Don's fourteen nationwide locations or to contact Aero Tech directly. This direct line of communication adds another layer of support, enabling users to get back in the field working as quickly as possible with expert assistance and custom solutions.

Long-time customer Michael Shoney expressed his enthusiasm: “Having worked with Aero Tech for 18 years with the XT, I’m thrilled that I can now purchase DDS Systems directly from them as well. It's reassuring to know that all DDS customers can easily reach out to Aero Tech for any technical support.”

Aero Tech Manufacturing is committed to enhancing customer experience and satisfaction. The direct sales model for the DDS System underscores the company's dedication to providing innovative solutions and top-tier support.
